

Decision not to continue to undertake an IC review under s 54W(c) of the Freedom of Information Act 1982

IC review applicant	Waldek Lupinski
Respondent	Attorney-General's Department
Decision date	10 May 2024
OAIC reference number	MR23/01375
Agency reference number	FOI23/500

Decision

1. I refer to the application made by Waldek Lupinski (the applicant) for Information Commissioner review (IC review) of a deemed access refusal decision made by the Attorney-General's Department (AGD) under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cth) (the FOI Act).
2. As a delegate of the Information Commissioner, I am authorised to make decisions under s 54W(c) of the FOI Act.
3. On 18 April 2024 the AGD made a revised decision under s 55G of the FOI Act, providing the applicant partial access to documents.
4. The Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC) has not received a response from the applicant to our subsequent correspondence to advise whether they wished to proceed with the IC review. As a delegate of the Information Commissioner, I have decided not to continue to undertake an IC review under s 54W(c) of the FOI Act. My reasons follow.

Background

5. The key procedural steps in this IC review are set out at Attachment A.

Discretion not to continue to undertake an IC review

6. Under s 54W(c) of the FOI Act, the Information Commissioner may decide not to undertake a review, or not to continue to undertake a review, if the IC review applicant fails to comply with a direction of the Information Commissioner.

7. The Direction as to certain procedures to be followed by applicants in Information Commissioner reviews issued by the Australian Information Commissioner under s 55(2)(e)(i), provides:

Applicants who are satisfied with the decision and do not wish to proceed with the IC review must advise the OAIC in writing. Applicants who are not satisfied with the agency or Minister's decision must explain why they disagree with the decision and the basis on which they wish to proceed with the IC review.¹

8. The OAIC has not received a response from the applicant to our subsequent correspondence to advise whether they wished to proceed with the IC review.

Reasons for decision

9. I am satisfied that the IC review should be finalised under s 54W(c) of the FOI Act as the OAIC notified the applicant that in the absence of a response from them by 7 May 2024, their IC review would be finalised by a delegate of the Information Commissioner under s 54W(c) of the FOI Act.
10. In deciding whether to exercise the discretion not to undertake a review, I have considered:
 - The applicant has not provided any indication to the OAIC that they disagree with the AGD's revised decision.
 - It does not appear that reviewing this matter will promote the objects of the FOI Act, particularly noting that access to documents has now been provided to the applicant.
11. As a delegate of the Information Commissioner, I have decided to exercise my discretion to decide not to continue to undertake an IC review under s 54W(c) of the FOI Act.
12. I confirm that this IC review is now closed. Your review rights are set out below.

Review rights

Judicial review

You can apply to the Federal Court of Australia or the Federal Circuit Court for a review of a decision of the Information Commissioner if you think that a decision by the Information Commissioner not to review or not to continue to undertake review of this IC review application under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act) is not legally correct. You can make this application under the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977.

The Court will not review the merits of your case but it may refer the matter back to the Information Commissioner for further consideration if it finds the decision was wrong in law or the Information Commissioner's powers were not exercised properly.

An application for review must be made to the Court within 28 days of the OAIC sending the decision or determination to you. You may wish to seek legal advice as the process can involve fees and costs. Please contact the Federal Court registry in your state or territory for more information, or visit the Federal Court website at <http://www.fedcourt.gov.au/>.

Making a complaint to the Commonwealth Ombudsman

If you believe you have been treated unfairly by the OAIC, you can make a complaint to the Commonwealth Ombudsman (the Ombudsman). The Ombudsman's services are free. The Ombudsman can investigate complaints about the administrative actions of Australian Government agencies to see if you have been treated unfairly.

If the Ombudsman finds your complaint is justified, the Ombudsman can recommend that the OAIC reconsider or change its action or decision or take any other action that the Ombudsman considers is appropriate. You can contact the Ombudsman's office for more information on 1300 362 072 or visit the Commonwealth Ombudsman's website at <http://www.ombudsman.gov.au>.
