

Information Commissioner Review Application form

Getting started

The Office of the Australian Information Commissioner can review a Freedom of Information (FOI) decision made by an Australian Government agency or an Australian Government Minister.

The Office does not review FOI decisions made by State, Territory or local government agencies.

The Office encourages you to apply for an internal review by the agency before lodging a request for review with this Office. Information relating to the internal review process (<https://www.oaic.gov.au/freedom-of-information/reviews/internal-review/>) is available on our website (<https://www.oaic.gov.au/>).

The Information Commissioner has given a general direction under s 55(2)(e)(i) of the FOI Act which sets out the procedure to be followed by applicants for IC reviews undertaken by the Information Commissioner under the FOI Act. To view the direction (<https://www.oaic.gov.au/freedom-of-information/reviews/direction-as-to-certain-> Information relating to the Information Commissioner review process (<https://www.oaic.gov.au/freedom-of-information/reviews/information-commissioner-review-process/>) is available on our website. Part 10 of the FOI Guidelines (<https://www.oaic.gov.au/freedom-of-information/foi-guidelines/part-10-review-by-the-information-commissioner/>) (Review by the Information Commissioner) describes the principles that inform the OAIC's approach to Information Commissioner review.

An application for review must be submitted in writing, either via this form, an email, or in a letter. If you have trouble completing this form please send an email to FOIDR@oaic.gov.au.
