9. FORMER PRIME MINISTERS AND FORMER PORTFOLIO MINISTERS (from DFAT High-Level and Official Visits Guidelines).

In recognition of the office which they held, successive Australian governments have agreed to extend certain courtesies to former prime ministers and former portfolio ministers, and extended to their accompany partners, when travelling overseas.

Post and divisions should notify MEL if former Prime Ministers or former portfolio ministers approach them directly requesting DFAT support for official overseas travel.

1. Business or commercial interests

Posts and divisions should not assist former prime ministers or former portfolio ministers, including arranging calls overseas, related to the former prime ministers' or former portfolio ministers' own business interests.

DFAT does not pass contact details of former Prime Ministers or former portfolio ministers to third parties. When asked for such details, divisions and Posts should refer third parties to former prime ministers' or portfolio ministers' websites/social media accounts.

2. Schedule outlining parameters Former Prime Ministers

Former prime ministers have access to international travel expenses necessary for travel when undertaking international travel approved by the Prime Minister. If the travel is not approved by the Prime Minister, then IPEA are unable to cover the expenses.

Each former prime minister has their own schedule (detailing the resources they may request to draw on) as per the Parliamentary Business Resources (former Prime Ministers\) Determination 2017 \(legislation.gov.au\)). It is strongly recommended post review what is covered for each individual former prime minister, as it varies from person to person, before providing any support.

3. Additional Reporting

Prior to Senate Estimates, MEL cables all posts requesting details of what assistance was provided to the former prime minister and portfolio minister visits. You do not need to re-provide the information again if you have already cabled.

MEL may also seek copies of divisions Senate Estimate brief regarding former prime minister or portfolio ministers visits to ensure consistency in information.

Thank you.
