Dear Mr Terhorst

FOI 24-40 - Decision on Access

I refer to the request made under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cth) (FOI Act) to Airservices Australia (Airservices) on 13 May 2024 (the request). It seeks access to:

“all correspondence between Airservices Australia and the aviation industry regarding the Hobart Runway 30 RNP-AR flight path design, which was finalised in May 2019 and put into effect in November 2019.

By aviation industry, I mean the operator of Hobart Airport, flight path design consultancies, pilot associations, commercial pilot training organisations, and all commercial airline operators, i.e. anybody with a direct or indirect interest in the flight path design.

I seek all correspondence between January 2018 and November 2019.”

I am authorised under section 23 of the FOI Act and the Airservices Instrument of Delegation and Authorisation to make decisions on primary requests under the FOI Act.

Decision

Access in part

I have decided to grant access to the documents sought by the request in part as they contain material that is:

- conditionally exempt under sections 47F (personal privacy) of the FOI Act, and access to that conditionally exempt material would be contrary to the public interest.

The documents and my decision in relation to each are set out in the schedule of documents at Attachment A (the Schedule).

The reasons for my decision are set out in the Statement of Reasons at Attachment B.

Review rights and complaints

Information about your rights of review and how you can make a complaint about the handling of your request is at Attachment C.

STATEMENT OF REASONS

Material on which the decision is based

I relied on the following material in coming to this decision:

- the terms of the request;
- the documents subject to the FOI request;
- advice from subject matter specialists within Airservices Australia (Airservices) regarding the nature and sensitivity of the documents subject to the request;
- responses from third parties consulted as part of the processing of the request;
- the FOI Act; and
- the guidelines issued by the Australian Information Commissioner under section 93A of the FOI Act (FOI Guidelines).

Section 47F - personal privacy

Section 47F of the FOI Act relevantly provides that a document is conditionally exempt if its disclosure under this Act would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about any person (including a deceased person). Access to the conditionally exempt document may only be withheld where it is contrary to the public interest.

Certain documents subject to the request (identified in the Schedule) contains personal information, specifically names and other personally identifying information. I am satisfied that this personal information is not publicly available, nor are the individuals concerned well known to be involved in the matters described in the documents.

I therefore find that disclosure of this personal information would be unreasonable and conditionally exempt under section 47F(1) of the FOI Act.

When considering whether access to this personal information is contrary to the public interest I acknowledge that access would inherently promote the objects of the FOI Act, demonstrating full transparency of government. However, providing access to this personal information would also intrude on the privacy of the individuals to whom the personal information relates whilst also not providing great insight into the decision making processes of Airservices. This adverse effect outweighs any benefit that could flow from disclosing that personal information.

As a result, I am satisfied that access to the personal information would be contrary to the public interest, and have decided to withhold access to it.
