Dear Frank N Fearless

Decision on your Freedom of Information Request

I refer to your request received by Services Australia (the Agency) on 3 June 2024 for access under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act) to the following documents:

I seek the Agency's report on implementing the Robodebt Royal Commission Recommendations which was provided to the Priority and Delivery Committee of Cabinet in May.

As has been officially disclosed by the Agency, the Royal Commission Response Branch was formally tasked with reporting on tracking and progress of recommendations, identification of risks and costs.

My decision

I have decided to refuse your request for access under section 24A of the FOI Act on the basis that all reasonable steps have been taken to locate the document you have requested and I am satisfied it does not exist.

Please Attachment A to this letter for the reasons for my decision.

You can ask for a review of our decision

If you disagree with any part of the decision you can ask for a review. There are two ways you can do this. You can ask for an internal review from within the Agency, or an external review by the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner. You do not have to pay for a review of the decision. See Attachment B for more information about how to request a review.

REASONS FOR DECISION

What you requested

Your request was made in the following terms:

I seek the Agency's report on implementing the Robodebt Royal Commission Recommendations which was provided to the Priority and Delivery Committee of Cabinet in May.

As has been officially disclosed by the Agency, the Royal Commission Response Branch was formally tasked with reporting on tracking and progress of recommendations, identification of risks and costs.

On 5 June 2024, the Agency acknowledged your FOI request and confirmed that a decision on your request was due on 3 July 2024.

What I took into account

In reaching my decision I took into account:

- your request dated 3 June 2024
- searches undertaken to locate the requested document
- consultations with Agency officers about:
 - the nature of the document you sought
 - the Agency's operating environment and functions
- consultation with the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet (PMC)
- guidelines issued by the Australian Information Commissioner under section 93A of the FOI Act (the Guidelines), and
- the FOI Act.

Reasons for my decisions

I am authorised to make decisions under section 23(1) of the FOI Act.

Section 24A of the FOI Act

Section 24A of the FOI Act provides that:

- (1) An agency or Minister may refuse a request for access to a document if:
 - (a) all reasonable steps have been taken to find the document; and
 - (b) the agency or Minister is satisfied that the document:
 - (i) is in the agency's or Minister's possession but cannot be found; or
 - (ii) does not exist.

The Royal Commission Response Branch conducted searches of the Agency's electronic and paper files. Noting your request sought access to a document provided to the Priority and Delivery Committee of Cabinet in May, I also undertook consultation with the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet.

The Royal Commission Response Branch conducts the strategic coordination of the agency's implementation of the Government's response to the recommendations of the Royal Commission into the Robodebt Scheme. They are responsible for managing the coordination of the agency's implementation of the recommendations.

The Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet is responsible for development of Cabinet processes, and provides supports to Cabinet committees. I consider it was appropriate to consult the Royal Commission Response Branch and the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet to locate any document that would fall within the scope of your request.

No documents responsive to your request were located.

On the basis of these searches, I am satisfied that in accordance with section 24A of the FOI Act:

1. all reasonable steps have been taken to find the document, and
2. the document does not exist.

Before you ask for a formal review of a FOI decision, you can contact us to discuss your request. We will explain the decision to you. This gives you a chance to correct misunderstandings.

Asking for a formal review of a FOI decision

If you still believe a decision is incorrect, the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act) gives you the right to apply for a review of the decision. Under sections 54 and 54L of the FOI Act, you can apply for a review of an FOI decision by:

1. an Internal Review Officer in the Agency, and/or
2. the Australian Information Commissioner.

Note 1: There are no fees for these reviews.

Applying for an internal review by an Internal Review Officer

If you apply for internal review, a different decision maker to the Agency delegate who made the original decision will carry out the review. The Internal Review Officer will consider all aspects of the original decision and decide whether it should change. An application for internal review must be:

- made in writing
- made within 30 days of receiving this letter
- sent to the address at the top of the first page of this letter or by email to freedomofinformation@servicesaustralia.gov.au

Note 2: You do not need to fill in a form. However, it is a good idea to set out any relevant submissions you would like the Internal Review Officer to further consider, and your reasons for disagreeing with the decision.

Applying for external review by the Australian Information Commissioner

If you do not agree with the original decision or the internal review decision, you can ask the Australian Information Commissioner to review the decision.

If you do not receive a decision from an Internal Review Officer in the Agency within 30 days of applying, you can ask the Australian Information Commissioner for a review of the original FOI decision.

You will have 60 days to apply in writing for a review by the Australian Information Commissioner.

You can lodge your application:

Online: www.oaic.gov.au

Post: Australian Information Commissioner
GPO Box 5218
SYDNEY NSW 2001

Email: enquiries@oaic.gov.au

Note 3: The Office of the Australian Information Commissioner generally prefers FOI applicants to seek internal review before applying for external review by the Australian Information Commissioner.

Important:

- If you are applying online, the application form the 'FOI Review Form' is available at Information Commissioner Review Application form
- If you have one, you should include with your application a copy of the Agency's decision on your FOI request
