Dear Mr Hu

Freedom of information request no. 03-2025

1 The purpose of this letter is to give you a decision about access to documents that you requested under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act).

2 You requested access to documents relating to the Marriage Amendment (Definition and Religious Freedoms) Act 2017 on 30 July 2024. Specifically you sought access to:

“A copy of the Marriage Amendment (Definition and Religious Freedoms) Act 2017, as passed in full with signature of the Royal Assent (as well as, if there is any, signature/wording from the federal parliament or speaker).”

Decision and reasons for decision

3 I, Stephen Campbell, General Manager Corporate, am an officer authorised under subsection 23(1) of the FOI Act to make decisions in relation to FOI requests.

4 In response to your request, a true copy of the Governor-General’s signature on the Marriage Amendment (Definition and Religious Freedoms) Act 2017 is attached.

5 No documents were identified that fall within the scope of your request for signature/wording from the Federal Parliament or Speaker of the House.

6 OPC recommends you refer to the public source information about records of the bill’s passage through Parliament, as well as the date of Assent, which is available <https://parlinfo.aph.gov.au/parlInfo/search/search.w3p>. This page includes documents that could be helpful in providing further context or exact wording from the Parliament.

7 I have taken the following material into account in making my decision:

- The content of the documents that fall within scope of your request;
- The FOI Act; and

28 Sydney Avenue Forrest ACT 2603

- The guidelines issued by the Australian Information Commissioner under section 93A of the FOI Act.

8 Please note, this request will be published on OPC's disclosure log within 10 working days after the day you are given access to this document.

Your review rights

9 If you are dissatisfied with the information provided, you may apply for internal review or Information Commissioner for a review. We encourage you to seek internal review as a first step as it may provide a more rapid resolution of your concerns.

Internal review

10 Under section 54 of the FOI Act, you may apply for an internal review of my decision. Your application must be made within 30 days after the date of this letter.

11 An internal review will be conducted by a different officer. No particular form is required to apply for review although it will assist your case to set out in the application the grounds on which you believe that the original decision should be overturned. An application for a review of the decision should be lodged in one of the following ways:

email: foi@opc.gov.au

post: FOI Coordinator, Locked Bag 30, Kingston ACT 2604

12 If you choose to seek an internal review, you will subsequently have a right to apply for Information Commissioner review of the internal review decision.

Information Commissioner review

13 Under section 54L of the FOI Act, you may apply to the Australian Information Commissioner to review my decision. An application for review by the Information Commissioner must be made in writing within 60 days after the date of this letter, and be lodged in one of the following ways:
