

Decision to grant an extension of time under s 15AC of the Freedom of Information Act 1982

Agency	Australian Federal Police
Applicant	CR
Date of decision	5 November 2024
OAIC reference number	RQ24/04778
Agency reference number	LEX 3142

Decision

1. On 1 November 2024, the Australian Federal Police (the Agency) applied to the Information Commissioner under s 15AC(4) of the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cth) (FOI Act) for an extension of 21 days to 19 November 2024 to process CR's (the Applicant) request of 15 September 2024 (the FOI request). This application was made on the basis that the processing period is insufficient to adequately deal with the FOI request.
2. As a delegate of the Information Commissioner, I am authorised to make decisions on applications for further time under s 15AC(5) of the FOI Act.
3. Under s 15AC(5) I have decided to grant the Agency further time to deal with the request to 19 November 2024. My reasons are outlined below.

Background

4. The background to this application is summarised in Attachment A.
5. A copy of the Agency's reasons for seeking an extension are included at Attachment B.

Reasons for decision

6. Subsection 15AC(5) of the FOI Act provides that I may allow further time that I consider appropriate for the agency or Minister to deal with the request.
7. In making my decision under s 15AC(5), I have considered the information provided by the Agency and the FOI Guidelines issued by the Information Commissioner under s 93A of the FOI Act, in particular paragraphs [3.150] – [3.157].
8. On the information before the OAIC, I am satisfied that the application for further time until 19 November 2024 is justified, for the following reasons:

- The further time sought by the Agency does not appear to be excessive in the circumstances.
 - Granting this further time will also reinstate the Applicant's right to seek an internal review of the Agency's decision, and to extend the timeframe for the Applicant to apply for an IC review of the Agency's decision.
9. In granting this further time, I have also considered:
- The work already undertaken by the Agency to finalise the request.
 - Steps taken by the Agency to first request a s 15AA agreement from the Applicant.
10. The new due date for the Agency's decision on the FOI request is now 19 November 2024.
11. This further time granted under s 15AC of the FOI Act means that the deemed refusal is taken never to have applied if the Agency makes a decision on the request by 19 November 2024. Such an extension can only be granted once and cannot be extended by a variation.
12. I note that the Freedom of Information (Charges) Regulations 2019 provides if an applicant is not notified of a decision on a request within the statutory time limit (including any extension of time), the agency or Minister cannot impose a charge for providing access, even if the applicant was earlier notified that a charge was payable (regs 7(2), (3)). This further time granted under s 15AC of the FOI Act means that charges cannot be reimposed and any deposit the Applicant has paid should be refunded.
13. If the Agency does not provide the Applicant a decision by 19 November 2024, or the Applicant disagrees with a decision from the Agency, it will be open to the Applicant to seek Information Commissioner review (IC review). Further information on applying for IC review is available on the OAIC website. Any application for IC review would need to be made within 60 days of the Agency's decision or deemed decision.
14. For further information, the OAIC website provides a resource containing information on applying for an extensions of time to process freedom of information requests.
15. This extension of time matter is now closed. Your review rights are set out below.
16. If you would like to discuss this matter, please contact our office by email at FOIDR@oaic.gov.au, quoting reference number RQ24/04778.

Yours sincerely

A De Ieso

The Agency's reasons for requesting an extension of time, as included in the extension of time request form.

15/09/2024 - Request recieved 24/09/2024 - Acknowledgement sent to applicant 24/09/2024 - Documents retrieved from previous decision 01/10/2024 - Documents sent to line area to review and comment 03/10/2024 - line area notified more time required to assess as would require Executive input 03/10/2024 - 15AA extension sent to applicant 14/10/2024 - documents returned to FOI team with comments on mark ups required 18/10/2024 - mark ups completed and documents sent for Executive clearance to release 30/10/2024 - Executive clearance received to release

What work is required to finalise the request? *

Delays were experienced in the clearance of documents for release. This has now been obtained, only outstanding work is to draft the decision letter

Please describe the scope and complexity of the request. Please provide the number of documents at issue and the number of folios, as well as any complexity in the nature of those document *

While the material only consisted of 17 folios, due to the sensitive nature of the material it required input from Assistant Commissioner level which resulted in delays due to scheduling with operational requirements

Do other agencies or parties have an interest in the request? *

No

Review rights

If you disagree with the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner's (OAIC) decision you can apply to the Federal Court of Australia or the Federal Circuit Court for a review of a decision of the Information Commissioner, if you think that a decision by the Information Commissioner to grant an extension of time is not legally correct. You can make this application under the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977.

The Court will not review the merits of your case, but it may refer the matter back to the Information Commissioner for further consideration if it finds the decision was wrong in law or the Information Commissioner's powers were not exercised properly.

An application for review must be made to the Court within 28 days of the OAIC sending the decision to you. You may wish to seek legal advice as the process can involve fees and costs. Please contact the Federal Court registry in your state or territory for more information or visit the Federal Court website at <http://www.fedcourt.gov.au/>.

Further information

Further information about how applications to extend the timeframe to process an FOI request are handled by the OAIC can be found published on our website:

For Applicants: How to make an FOI request: Extensions of time

For agencies and Ministers: Guidance and advice: Extension of time for processing requests

The OAIC has the power to investigate complaints about an agency's actions under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (FOI Act). This is a separate process from asking for an Information Commissioner review following a decision made under the FOI Act. Complaints usually focus on how an agency has handled your FOI request or complied with other obligations under the FOI Act, rather than the decision itself.

In some cases, the Information Commissioner's investigation of a complaint may lead to the agency addressing the issues that you have complained about. In other cases, the Information Commissioner may make suggestions or recommendations that the agency should implement. The Information Commissioner can only make non-binding recommendations as a result of a complaint. You and the agency will be notified of the outcome of the investigation.

FOI complaints to the OAIC must be made in writing. Our preference is for you to use the online FOI complaint form if at all possible.

Further information about how to make a complaint can be found published on our website: <https://www.oaic.gov.au/freedom-of-information/your-freedom-of-information-rights/freedom-of-information-complaints/make-an-foi-complaint>.

Making a complaint to the Commonwealth Ombudsman

If you believe you have been treated unfairly by the OAIC, you can make a complaint to the Commonwealth Ombudsman (the Ombudsman). The Ombudsman's services are free. The Ombudsman can investigate complaints about the administrative actions of Australian Government agencies to see if you have been treated unfairly.

If the Ombudsman finds your complaint is justified, the Ombudsman can recommend that the OAIC reconsider or change its action or decision or take any other action that the Ombudsman considers is appropriate. You can contact the Ombudsman's office for more information on 1300 362 072 or visit the Commonwealth Ombudsman's website at <http://www.ombudsman.gov.au>.
