Dear Mr Hamiltonshire

Freedom of Information Request Decision

The Australian Transaction Reports and Analysis Centre (AUSTRAC) refers to the Freedom of Information request (FOI request) received from you on 19 November 2024, as follows:

"I request access to the Style Guides/Brand Guides/Writing Guides currently used for the Australian Transaction Reports and Analysis Centre."

AUSTRAC conducted searches for the documents identified within scope of your request.

AUSTRAC identified a total of 4 documents in scope which have been combined into a singular Adobe PDF document.

I have not identified any relevant exemptions that apply to the document. However, the document contains some information that could reasonably be considered to be irrelevant to the scope of your request. Therefore, I have decided to release the document to you in part, with the irrelevant information redacted under s 22 of the FOI Act.

In making my decision I have also had regard to the following:

- Freedom of Information Act 1982;
- Guidelines issued by the Australian Information Commissioner.

You have the right to seek review if you are not satisfied with this decision. An application for internal review of this decision must be made in writing within 30 days of receipt of this letter by email to info_access@austrac.gov.au. You may also seek review of this decision by the Information Commissioner by contacting the Office of the Australian Information

Commissioner (OAIC). Information on how to apply for Information Commissioner review is available on the OAIC website.

Additionally, I consider it appropriate to advise you that the words “Fintel Alliance” and the image that sits beside those words in the Fintel Alliance branding were trademarked by The Crown in Right of the Commonwealth in 2017.

Yours sincerely
