REASONS FOR DECISION

Section 24A – Requests may be refused if documents cannot be found, do not exist or have not been received

6. Section 24A(1) of the FOI Act states:
    - (1) An agency or Minister may refuse a request for access to a document if:
      - (a) all reasonable steps have been taken to find the document; and
      - (b) the agency or Minister is satisfied that the document:
        - (i) is in the agency's or Minister's possession but cannot be found; or
        - (ii) does not exist.
7. Paragraph 3.94 of the Guidelines advises the detail that this statement of reasons should include to refuse a request under section 24A(1):
...the statement of reasons given to the applicant should sufficiently identify the document, explain why it cannot be found or is known not to exist or to be in the agency's possession, describe the steps the agency took to search for the document, and note the limitations of any search...

8. Personnel from the AMFRTF conducted searches. Searches were conducted in the electronic document record system 'Objective' for documents related to the scope of the request. No documents were identified that matched the request.
9. I am satisfied that all reasonable steps have been taken to locate the documents sought by the applicant.
10. I am satisfied that the documents in the scope of the requests do not exist, and refuse the request under section 24A(1) of the FOI Act.
