Minister's Comments

Key Issues

1. Section 198AJ of the Migration Act 1958 (the Act) requires you to table a Report about Unauthorised Maritime Arrivals (UMA) (Report) in each House of Parliament within 15 sitting days after the end of a financial year. In the 2024 parliamentary sitting calendar, the 15th sitting day falls on 11 September 2024.

2. s. 33(a)(iii)

3. s. 33(a)(iii)

- s. 42(1)

Background

4. Subsection 198AJ(1) of the Act requires each Report to include information relevant to:

- a. arrangements made by regional processing countries during the financial year for for:
  - i. assessing protection claims made by UMAs; and
  - ii. the accommodation, health care and education of the UMAs.

- b. the number of claims assessed by the country in the financial year.

- c. the number of UMAs determined to be covered by the definition of refugee in Article 1A of the 1951 Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees as amended by the 1967 Protocol relating to the Status of Refugees.

5. s. 33(a)(iii)

Consultation – internal/external

6. s. 33(a)(iii)
7. The submission was consulted with Migration and Citizenship Law Branch and the Joint Agency Task Force Operation Sovereign Borders was made aware of the tabling commitments and pending tabling action.

Consultation – Secretary / Associate Secretary Immigration / ABF Commissioner

8. The Secretary, Associate Secretary Immigration and ABF Commissioner were not consulted on this submission.

Client service implications

9. Nil.

Risks and Sensitivities

10. Tabling of the Reports may attract some media attention; however, the Reports do not contain any information that is not already in the public domain and are not controversial in content or by nature. There was no media reporting in relation to previous tabling of Reports.

Financial/systems/legal/deregulation/media implications

11. There are no financial, systems, legislation or deregulation implications associated with this submission.
12. The Department will work closely with Media Operations in the event of any media interest.
